Kelowna Little Theatre

Kelowna is indeed fortunate in having an active group of citizens take such a keen interest in the Little Theatre movement. The fact that a capacity audience attended Monday night's presentation of "Ah Wilderness"—the third time it has been presented in almost as many months—is mute testimony that the people of this city are well aware of the hard work and effort that the Little Theatre people put into their productions.

The entire Okanagan Valley will await with keen interest the announcement of the B.C. festival winner by adjudicator Mr. Graham Suter on Saturday night. In entering drama festivals, Little Theatre members, particularly the cast of the play, must be prepared to accept some harsh criticism by the adjudicator. That's the reason an adjudicator is appointed by the Dominion Drama Festival. He is generally an experienced actor—a man qualified to make suggestions and offer constructive criticism. Some of the finer points of acting and stage work, referred to by Mr. Suter in his public adjudication Monday night, opened the eyes of many "average" theatre-goers. He touched on the finer points of acting which the "average" individual is inclined to overlook.

A person who has the courage to stand before several hundred spectators and take part in a play is to be highly commended. In covering recitals, concerts or stage plays, a home-town newspaper is inclined to be non-critical and give praise where praise is warranted. However, in covering an important function, such as the B.C. regional drama festival, it is the duty of a newspaper to fully report the adjudicator's remarks. Little Theatre members probably welcomed Mr. Suter's criticism, even though some of his remarks may have been, should we say, on the personal side. But we are confident the cast of "Ah Wilderness" will take them in the spirit in which they were given. They turned in an excellent performance.

We were somewhat interested in Mr. Suter's observation regarding the necessity of improved facilities for stage productions. The stage of the Empress Theatre is indeed small, and not suitable for certain types of plays where it is necessary to change the stage two or three times during a production.

Conversely, are we not indeed fortunate in having a building such as the Empress to produce such shows? Kelowna Little Theatre has progressed steadily, particularly during the last three years. Productions have improved; KLT members are showing the benefit of stage experience, and there is more support from the general public.

There's an old saying that one should not "bite off more than they can chew." This perhaps applies to Kelowna Little Theatre. It would be much better to continue to concentrate on a well-knit organization and improve the calibre of plays, than to launch a campaign for increased membership with a view of building a structure, complete with all the modern stage facilities, which, in the long run, may be only used a dozen times a year.

Who's crazy?

A news story from New York tells that authorities there gave a mental examination to a prospective bridegroom. His sanity was questioned, not because he wanted to become a bridegroom as might be expected, but because he refused to get married on a television program when he and his bride-to-be argued over where they would spend their expense-paid honeymoon.

Perhaps there was reason to send the potential groom to the psychiatrists. But if such action was necessary, might it not be wise on the part of the authorities to ask everyone connected with the events, sponsors included, to undergo the same treatment?

Isn't there some psychological kink in people who would reduce the wedding ceremony to the status of a give-away program?

In our innocence, we had thought the father of the bride was the only person who gave anything away at a wedding. But perhaps we're still living in that age when the marriage contract, religious or civil, appeared to have some sacredness about it. We can't quite reconcile ourselves to the use of the ceremony as an eye-catcher to help sell some manufacturer's product.

W. H. Fleck re-elected president Okanagan Trades, Labor Council

W. H. Fleck was re-elected president of the Okanagan District Trades and Labor Council at the annual meeting held in the labor headquarters. Other officers who were returned to office include Bryan Cooney, vice-president; Mrs. M. M. Atwood, secretary-treasurer; Cecil Dadds, recording secretary; committee members, Mrs. Valerie Sward, Kelowna; W. H. Phelps, Vernon; T. C. Hawtree, Penticton.

President Fleck stated negotiations between the school employees' federal union and school boards throughout the Okanagan are almost complete. Majority will receive wage increases averaging around $5 a month, together with fringe benefits, he said.

"A departure from the usual procedure which is quite an innovation in labor relations in the Okanagan, was the holding of a meeting between Kelowna school employees and labor relations officer of the school board, Vic Gregory," Mr. Fleck reported.

"An open discussion on the various problems arising from time to time and suggestions were put forward by the employees, which in their opinion would eliminate a number of difficulties and ensure the smooth working of the job in general."

BOARD REPRESENTATIVE
Dr. W. F. Anderson will represent the Kelowna Board of Trade at city council Monday night.

Cool Monday, hot today and the price was $136

Kelowna motorist James E. Nash—1940 Water Street—may be hot under the collar today but he got a chance to cool off last Monday night.

His car struck a fire hydrant that night. The result? Cool water. The city sent him a bill for the hydrant this week. The bill? $136.

RCMP say no charges were laid.

"Mothers' march on polio"

NEXT MONDAY NIGHT between 7 and 8 o'clock, over 300 women will take part in the "Mothers' March on Polio", sponsored by the Kelowna Kinsmen Club.

Nine district captains will have charge of a section of the city, and the volunteers hope to complete the "blitz" campaign in one hour. Those willing to donate, are asked to leave a porch light burning, and in the case of those living in apartments, the Kinsmen would appreciate them tying some object to the door handle, signifying their intention to donate to the polio fund. Kinsmen point out any donation, large or small, would be welcome.

Bridge committee members named by board of trade

An Okanagan bridge committee under the chairmanship of C. E. R. Bazett has been set up by the Kelowna Board of Trade, and the initial meeting will be held within the next few days.

Prime objective of the committee is to get the unanimous support of various organizations and municipal councils in the Okanagan to petition the provincial government to construct a bridge across the lake under the toll bridge authority plan.

Vice-chairman of the committee is Ald. R. F. Parkinson, while board members are Norman Taylor, H. S. Harrison Smith, J. D. Bews, W. T. L. Roadhouse and N. J. Waddington. Representatives of various organizations are R. J. Bennett, Retail Merchants' Bureau; R. P. MacLean, Okanagan-Cariboo Trail Association; Hugh Earle, Kelowna Junior Chamber of Commerce; Dave Chapman, Kelowna and District Transport Association; Brian Cooney and W. H. Fleck, Okanagan District Trades and Labor Council; Mrs. H. V. Acland, Kelowna Council of Women; W. Beaver-Jones, press; Jim Browne and Denny Reid, radio. Representatives of the tourist council and auto courts and resorts association, will be appointed later.

To date more than 30 organizations have unanimously gone on record favoring construction of a bridge, and it is hoped to obtain the support from neighboring cities and towns. When this is obtained, a brief will be forwarded to Premier W. A. C. Bennett, requesting the government to proceed with the construction of a bridge under the toll bridge authority plan.

Mr. Bazett emphasized that for the time being the committee is not interested in the location, or approaches of the bridge. Premier Bennett, earlier in the year, disclosed that it is feasible to construct a bridge between the City Park and Siwash point. But he emphasized it is up to the Okanagan communities to make the decision.

While some opposition has been voiced in the Penticton-Naramata area, it was reported that others in the same locality are in favor of a bridge and have signified their intention to support the move. Sumnerland, Peachland and Westbank will get underway at 2:00 p.m.

ANNOUNCE WINNER SATURDAY

Kelowna Little Theatre's entry in B.C. drama festival was "well done and full of promise" says adjudicator

By RON BAIRD

Adjudicator Graham Suter told the cast of Kelowna's Little Theatre group Monday night that their B.C. Regional Drama Festival entry "Ah Wilderness" was "well done, full of promise, but a little inclined toward burlesque."

The three-act Eugene O'Neill comedy concerned the romantic difficulties of a poetry-reading, 16-year-old youth in 1906 and the manner in which his long-suffering parents see the crisis through on a July 4 holiday in the United States.

The Kelowna entry in the regional festival is one of three in British Columbia—the others are Trail and Victoria.

Winner of the regional will be announced in Victoria Saturday by Mr. Suter.

In assessing the play at the conclusion of the third act, Mr. Suter first concerned himself with the presentation.

He termed the stage facilities at the Empress Theatre "hysterical" because of the extreme difficulties which arose in arranging the sets. "There were great difficulties in moving the sets, which were good," said the adjudicator.

"You managed well under very, very adverse circumstances."

"He suggested that the costumes were a bit 'grubby' but, on the whole, thought that the stage presentation was 'extremely well done.'"

Director Frank Bishop he credited with "good stage sense." However, said Mr. Suter, his direction tended to push the comedy a little too low which "rather blunted the delicacy of the story." He said Mr. Bishop's approach was careful and truthful and he had "shown a lot of cardinal qualities."

Engineer will make water pipe survey

M. L. Wade, consulting engineer at Kamloops, will confer with civic officials here tomorrow regarding preliminary plans for the removal of the domestic water intake pipe to Poplar Point.

Intake pipe is presently located at the foot of Doyle Avenue, near the powerhouse, and health authorities have recommended a new location in a less-contaminated area.

George Meckling, city engineer, said his department had made a preliminary survey of the Poplar Point area. Mr. Wade will now make a personal survey, and it is hoped his recommendations will be ready before the end of April.

If raters approve the necessary bylaw later in the year, the city plans to install fluoridation equipment.

WATER SOFTENER

During a brief discussion at this week's council meeting, one alderman asked if consideration had been given to install a water-softener. Mr. Meckling said this would necessitate installing a series of filters, and based on future requirements for a 15-year period, he estimated it would cost $200,000. The matter was quickly dropped.

Ald. Art Jackson informed council that the health department recently distributed pamphlets to school children outlining present water conditions. A graph also showed what refuse enters the lake. He thought a considerable amount of "spade work" had been done by the health department in making the public conscious of the necessity of locating the intake pipe in a less-contaminated area.

Industrial section of city to be re-assessed to adjust any existing inequalities

Flag debate

The Canadian Ensign won out over the Union Jack when City Council debated the merits of the two flags this week.

Discussion took place when Ald. R. F. L. Keller asked permission to purchase 37 flags to replace those presently being used on the centre lamp standards on Bernard Avenue.

Council also went on record favoring the purchase of cotton flags instead of the nylon type. Several aldermen agreed that the nylon flags fade very quickly when they are used outdoors although they look much superior when used indoors. It was finally decided to purchase 35 cotton ensigns and two nylon flags. The nylon type will cost around $10 each and the cotton $8.

Packers sign Frank Kuly; drop Johnston

Ex-Packer defenceman Frank Kuly has joined the Kelowna club.

Kuly arrived today and is expected to go into action soon to bolster the Packers defence.

Born in Portage La Prairie, Kuly played two seasons in England, then came to the OSAHL where he played for Kamloops before joining Packers for three seasons in 1950.

He won the Kelowna club's "most valuable player" award in the 1951-52 season.

Earlier, coach Phil Hergeshelmer announced that defenceman Don Johnston has been released from the club, effective last Tuesday.

Hergeshelmer said today that Don Smith, recent import from the Vancouver Canucks, is expected to be in action tonight.

Two Kelowna 4-H members will be honored

Two members of the Kelowna 4-H Clubs will be honored at the annual meeting of the North Okanagan Beef Cattle Growers to be held in Vernon Friday night.

Miss Kathleen Tyndal, 19, of Winfield, will be presented with the Kelowna branch, Bank of Nova Scotia grand aggregate award for being judged the best member of the Kelowna 4-H Club.

The North Okanagan Beef Cattle Growers are hosting all 4-H Club members from Kelowna to Salmon Arm.

TRADE LICENCE
Verne Ahrens was granted a trade licence covering the business of a contractor, after application was made to city council Monday night.

Fire department employees work 48 hours a week

In last week's Courier, it was incorrectly stated that the paid employees of the Kelowna Volunteer Fire Department work 44-hours a week, and that council had given the men a wage increase to offset the shorter work-week (40 hours) granted to other city unions.

It has since been drawn to the attention of The Courier, that the firemen work a 48-hour week. In the discussion at council meeting last week reference was made to three other civic unions working a 44-hour week, and it was naturally assumed that the firemen worked the same number of hours. No reference was made to a 48-hour work week.

The Courier regrets any embarrassment it may have caused the firemen.

Request permission to rent two lots for selling cars

Request from Kelowna Motors to rent two lots on the northeast corner of Leon and Abbott for the purpose of selling used cars, was referred to Ald. Bob Knox for further investigation.

Formal application was made at this week's council meeting. It was stated the motor car company would flood-light the property at night, and the grounds would be kept in neat appearance.

Court of revision grants four assessment appeals

The entire industrial section of the city will be re-assessed during the next two years to adjust any inequalities which may exist at the present time, it was disclosed this week.

Re-assessment of residential area was completed last year. City Council, sitting as a court of revision, heard eight appeals last week, four property owners receiving reductions which amounted to $180 on land and $3,128 on improvements. Based on last year's mill rate, the reductions amounted to $152.80 in taxes.

Under the new assessment figures, value of taxable land now totals $2,116,196.80, an increase of $1,475 over last year, while improvements total $11,768,617 a jump of $123,339.50. Based on last year's levy of 100 percent on land and 50 percent on improvements being taxable, one mill will now be valued at $8,000.51, a slight increase over 1953.

Big upswing in electrical consumption

Judging by the huge increase in electrical consumption, more people are using electrical equipment in the City of Kelowna, Ald. Maurice Meikle informed City Council this week.

Mr. Meikle said electrical consumption in January showed an increase of 16.83 percent over the corresponding month last year.

Referring to the electrical department, Ald. Meikle asked council to consider the merits of employing a senior high school student during the summer months. He could be used on odd jobs around the city and also work in the power house, Mr. Meikle said.

City Engineer George Meckling commented that there are only two ways the city could get extra help—through the union, or by hiring an apprentice.

Ald. Dick Parkinson was in favor of the apprentice idea, and thought that there would be many young high school students who would be glad to work for a corporation, such as the city.

RCAF veterans plan reunion on March 6

Second annual Okanagan reunion of ex-members of the Royal Canadian Air Force and Royal Air Force will be held at the Royal Canadian Legion auditorium Saturday, March 6.

Preliminary plans were made at a meeting held Sunday in the Royal Anne Hotel, attended by ex-group Captain C. Tennant, of Naramata; Pete Suter, Penticton, and Harold Guest and Craig Brodie, Kelowna. Bill Helmsing, of Vernon, was unable to attend the meeting.

Last year a total of 144 RCAF veterans attended the dinner which was a marked success. Special committees have been set up, and a varied entertainment program arranged. Gordon McKay, of Bankhead is in charge of ticket sales in Kelowna.

Blood donor clinic here March 3, 4

Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic will set up equipment at the United Church hall for two days, March 3 and 4, at which time it is hoped to obtain a minimum of 800 pints of blood. A similar clinic will be held at Winfield on March 2.

Mrs. J. H. Horn, blood donor committee chairman, said odds will be sent out as usual, but this time the committee has decided to eliminate the time of appointments. As many as possible are urged to attend the afternoon clinic.

Middleton eyes 100th goal; Durban hopes to click also Tonight's the night for Packer forward Jim Middleton. He'll be trying for his 100th goal in the OSAHL since donning Packer uniform in 1949. Only other Packers to top the 100-goal mark are Frank Hoskins (122) and Mike Durban (112).

And it'll be an important game for Durban tonight also when Packers meet Trail Smoke Eaters at the Memorial Arena. Durban has scored against all teams in the WHL and OSAHL but Trail—he'll be looking to dent the Smoke's net tonight. Only other OSAHL players to score against all teams in both leagues are Bill Warwick of Penticton and Bud Evans of Kamloops.

Oilers beat Penticton 55-43; gather 12-point playoff lead

Kelowna's B.A. Oilers made it 12 in a row last night when they defeated Penticton Omegas 55-43 in a hard-fought playoff game at Penticton.

Oilers—senior B basketball entry—now carry a 12-point lead into the second game of a two-game total point series for the South Okanagan title.

The Kelowna squad meets Penticton here at the high school gym Friday night for the deciding game in the series.

Scoring opened with Omega's Johnson hitting from well out with two points, followed seconds later by Kelowna's Butcher, who tied up the score. Oilers held a comfortable margin from then on—four points at the first quarter, eight at the half and, starting the third quarter, went into a 14-point lead.

Midway through the third quarter, Penticton came to life and tied up the scoring momentarily. Omega's rally ended quickly when Gordon left the game after a tiff with referee Bob Hall. Ron Geo sank a free throw and Hank Tostenen technical to put Oilers in the lead again for good.

FOLEY STARS

Oilers showed weakness in their free throws, missing 19 useful points, but played a good, close-checking game with only one lapse in the third quarter.

Foley of Penticton—star of the game—produced a steady drive and some deadly shooting to give his team 15 points, the majority in the last half of the tilt.

Jack Bogress of Oilers garnered five fouls for the first time in a playing career that stretches back more than ten years.

Oilers—Tostenen, 7; MacNaughton, 7; Bogress, 9; Butcher, 9; Gee, 15; Ball, 5; Horn, 0; Thompson, 3; Smith, 0.

Omegas—Gordon, 10; Foley, 15; Kluck, 10; Jeffries, 2; Johnson, 5; Garnett, 0; Hammett, 1.

B.C. Game Commissioner well-known in Kelowna

A well-known sportsman who has addressed many fish and game meetings in Kelowna, Game Commissioner James C. Cunningham, 64, died in Vancouver Monday evening.

Mr. Cunningham, who would have celebrated his birthday Friday and looked forward to another year of work before retirement, had been ill for several months.

The commissioner, who returned Monday morning from a game convention in Calgary, was due to enter hospital the same day for a complete checkup.

A speaker much in demand throughout the province, he spent 37 years with the department. He served overseas in World War I and won a military medal. Returning to Vancouver, he joined the

Kamloops into second spot after 4-3 win over Trail

(Special to The Courier)

KAMLOOPS—Four goals in the opening period was the margin that moved Kamloops Elks into second place for the first time this season when they slipped past Trail Smoke Eaters of the WHILL 4-3 here Tuesday night.

The game was a wide open, fast-passing affair that sent a full house home happy.

Elks broke fast in the opener with Andy Clovechok and Bud Evans blinking the light once each while Don "Slats" Slater, playing a driving game, beat Seth Martin twice.

Smokies came back in the second frame with playing coach Moe Young breaking the goose egg at 2-0 and Apps Dorohoy making the scoresheet read 4-2 at the six-minute mark.

Both Hal Gordon in the Elks net and Martin in the Trail pipes held off all attacks until 13:51 of the third frame when Young whistled the rubber past Gordon from just inside the blue line.

With a possible tie on the fire, Young pulled goalie Martin at 18:35 when Kamloops' Bud Evans was thumbed to the penalty box on a tripping call.

Trail pushed hard with every man up but Elks coach Ken Ullott proved a master at getting the face-off drop and Kamloops controlled

... and Sid's still mad at Kelowna

Read a couple of little items in the Penticton Herald the other day by Sid Godber—the Sports-Fourth man. Seems Sid's still smarting over that 7-1 lacing Packers handed V's awhile back and had this to say about it: "The Packers can hardly be congratulated on a victory scored over a team lacking a complete line."

A little further on he adds: "... V's don't do anything by half..." I'll bet he wished they had the night Packers walloped 'em... even a 7-3 1/2 (is that possible?) score would have been better.

Don't get too mad, Sidney. The next time Packers met V's on Kelowna ice, the score was a more modest 4-3 and even a Packer fan like yours truly had to admit it was a "hollow victory."

Thanks for plugging our Doug Stevenson ("he's quite a workman")—we think so too!

But what about those harsh words for brother Kirk? And I quote: "I'm looking for the Kelowna press and radio to start demanding that Packer defenceman Jack Kirk be drummed out of the service. Both the Orchard City press and radio have talked and written in righteous indignation about the V's bad men, so surely they can't continue to permit the Packers' lily-white ranks to be sullied by a bad man like Kirk."

Well, sir, that's quite a tall order. I notice you say the "V's bad men,"—in the plural. Is that an admission that we have less "bad men" than Penticton because, if so, then I suppose our ranks are more "lily-white" than yours.

As for drumming Jack out of the ranks, the next sound you hear will be that of muffled drums.

There, Sid, the punishment fits the crime. But can we Kelowna fans suggest something for you to work on. When little boys get their faces dirty, their mothers generally wash them off.

But when your Gorgeous George McAvoy gets his face in the same condition after being nicked, nobody bothers to run out and clean him off.

How about it Sid? You want the job?

Up to his neck in work

No, it's not a character from the Wizard of Oz, but an airman completely wrapped up in his work. Corporal Bwd. Carmody, of Charlottetown, P.E.I., displays some of the various sizes of tires in stock at the RCAF's No. 30 air material base at Langar, England. Tires of all types and dimensions are only one of the many items handled by the modern depot near Nottingham, which supplies the RCAF's NATO air division of twelve jet fighter squadrons in England, France and Germany.

Modern trends Plan to improve of education roads in Vernon topic of talk

VERNON—While concerted action will be delayed until after the forthcoming session of the provincial legislature has brought down and passed its own budget, Mayor A. C. Wilde and his aldermen are beginning to turn their thoughts towards estimates of civic works to be carried out in Vernon during 1954.

Interviews with Mayor Wilde and various aldermen showed that high on the agenda for discussion will be considerable improvement of many city streets.

Part of Mayor A. C. Wilde's election campaign, it will be recalled, was his stated intention of having streets placed in first class condition, from curb to curb. At that time, Mayor Wilde said he did not even consider Barnard Avenue to be a properly completed street.

Works board chairman Ald. Harold Down is waiting for snow to disappear so that he can make a proper assessment of work required in various sections of the city, but already he is in close touch with City Engineer F. G. deWolf on the subject.

In Ald. Jack Monk's department, a major item of expense will be the re-wiring and repaving work about to take place at the Kalamalka Lake pump house, costing at least $8,000.

The arena commission has been invited to submit a list of improvements required in that civic centre, for consideration at estimate time. Replacement of refrigeration pipes below the floor may be involved.

Mayor Wilde said that for Ald. George Melvin's consideration would be the extension of street lighting, particularly on Schubert and Elm.

The new contract with the city's "outside" workers has now been agreed upon and should be ready for presentation at this week's Council meeting. Mayor Wilde said that immediately following Council adoption of that contract, negotiations with the firemen would begin.

Individuals differ greatly, and the school should adjust its program according to the child's growing needs and developments. "Education is not a preparation for life; it is life itself," the speaker said, pointing out that school years are an important segment in the child's life. "Education is growth," Dr. McIntosh said at another point, adding that it is the culmination of carefully selected learning experiences, and requires the mature guidance of adults.

Schools should prepare children for living in a democracy, and should assist the child without racial prejudice, adopting new ideas and rejecting old ones. "Homogeneous groupings was advocated regarding promotions, so that children would be in classes not too different from themselves."

Three Kelowna families helped by polio fund

The "polio case committee" of the Kinsmen Club of Kelowna is the local representative of the B.C. Polio Fund.

Members of this committee, Dr. Bruce Mair and Charles Bruce, report the investigation of all polio cases in this district and since last fall have sent three children with their mother or father to Vancouver for physiotherapy and the advice of specialists.

Because Kelowna has finally been hit by polio after a relatively disease-free history, the local Kinsmen have organized a "Mother's March on Polio." Proceeds from this "blitz" campaign which starts at 7:00 p.m. Monday, February 15, will go to the B.C. polio fund.

province including Langley Prairie, the province. Future plans call for Penticton, Nanaimo and Chilliwack, support of the federal government's Leg braces, crutches and wheel gamma globulin program. chairs have been spread all over In the foreseeable future, scientists and medical men will have found methods to combat this disease on a better than even footing. In the meantime all patients, no matter what their means, are entitled to the services of the B.C. polio fund. The citizens of Kelowna can do their part by "lighting a porch light for Polio" at 7 o'clock on February 15. Any others wishing to contribute may send their donations to the Kinsmen Club of Kelowna, Box 213, Kelowna, B.C. One-third of the hogs in the U.S. are raised in Iowa and Illinois.

Glenmore drama group annual concert proves to be outstanding success

GLENMORE—The Glenmore Community Club dramatic group presented their annual concert last Friday and it was enjoyed by the large crowd. The plays were ably directed by George Clark and were very amusing.

The program opened with "The Dummy," a domestic drama about an erring husband, and on the cast were Mrs. Barbara Snowball as Mrs. Hitchcock; Bill Miller, Mr. Hitchcock; Mrs. Dede Neld, Emma, the maid; Harold Willett, Ted; Jim Snowball, as the policeman, and the dummy "Herman," courtesy of Meikle's Ltd.

A short musical program was presented during which Roy Lobb sang several numbers; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ottens played a duet on balalaika and guitar; Mrs. Hatanaka did two Japanese dances; John Gartrell played the accordion, and a group of Glenmore Square Dancers performed. This group included Judy Snowball, Beverley Seltzer, Marilyn Short, Judy Robertson, Alan Thorlakson, Hugh Purdy, Norman Karan, and Wayne Hill.

The second play called "Consolation" dealt with a neurotic hospital patient and her troubles. Members of the cast were Mrs. Carol Hawkey as Mrs. Andrews, the patient; Mrs. Reba Snowball, Miss Gable, a nurse; Mrs. Adelaide Willett, as Miss Manning, also a nurse; Mrs. June Douglas, as Mrs. Tillie Frisbie, a visitor, and Mrs. Edie Dickens, as Della, the maid.

Says libraries provide major service in B.C.

C. K. Morrison, of Victoria, secretary of the Public Library Commission, spoke to the board of the Okanagan Regional Library at their annual meeting held here last Thursday, on the nature and function of the Public Library Commission, which is not administered by the department of education, but by a body of five people appointed on the recommendation of the minister of education. These five serve without pay, as do representatives of the various districts serving on the board of the regional libraries.

One of the functions of this commission is to operate a library service by mail for people in communities where there are no libraries. Last year 122,000 volumes were sent out to individuals, logging camps, lighthouses, lonely farms and isolated communities and outposts.

ASSIST LIBRARIES

Its second function is to advise and help whenever possible. Grants are made to assist Regional Libraries, and in reference to the proposed new building here Mr. Morrison stated that the commission will leave no stone unturned to secure a grant for this building. The Fraser Valley regional library headquarters branch received $12,000.00 for its new building put up last year at Abbotsford.

The public library service must provide the best possible books, on all possible subjects, for every kind of person in the community, old and young. That's why the library is a tax-supported institution. That is why we have regional libraries, staffed by trained librarians who manage economically and efficiently and do reference work and research. Such libraries require money, and smaller communities cannot afford large libraries although they need them. Several communities working together, however, can support libraries large enough to give them good service.

WIDE AREA SERVICED.

In the early 1930's the Carnegie Corporation gave the public library commission $130,000 to experiment with regional libraries in British Columbia, and they worked so well that the taxpayers in the Fraser Valley, the Okanagan and Vancouver areas voted to operate the libraries at their own expense. Today these three regional libraries are serving a combined population of more than a quarter of a million people, and through 103 branches, 263 book-van stations and 232 school libraries they have developed an annual book circulation of over a million volumes from a total collection of 140,000 books.

Any reader may borrow free any book located anywhere in his library district, and in addition, the library may borrow for him, books from any of the most important libraries in the whole Pacific Northwest.

Thus, thousands of British Columbians, through the medium of their tax bills, are paying for library service which many of them still do not realize is available. In other words, there is a source of recreation and education available to them for the asking which is not taken full advantage of. Very many people are aware of this service and make full use of it to read books on a variety of subjects, and to put in requests for books that have not yet appeared on the shelf of their particular library branch.

Orchard City Lodge officers installed

The installation took place in the Women's Institute Hall on Glenn Avenue and was followed by a showing of films after which refreshments were served.

At a meeting held Tuesday the lodge promised support to the Red Cross Society in their coming campaign for funds. Brother J. A. Smith will captain a team of eight to assist in this work.

One hundred and fifty skaters will take part in Kelowna figure skating club's fifth annual ice frolic February 20

Fifth annual ice frolic of the Kelowna Figure Skating Club will be held in the Kelowna and District Memorial Arena Saturday, Feb. 20. Under the direction of club professional Margaret Mitchell, a total of 150 skaters will appear on the ice to demonstrate how the club is progressing in skill and accomplishment.

The Vernon Figure Skating Club will participate in the local ice frolic contributing four numbers, one of which will start the evening off in fine style, "Swedish Rhapsody."

The story-book presentation of the Nutcracker Suite by the 80 junior members of the skating club, aged from three to thirteen will be a highlight of the evening's performance with Toy Soldiers, mice, flowers, sugar-plum fairies, Russians, Chinese, a prince and a princess all coming to life on the ice. The finale of this spirited number will be the beautiful "Waltz of the Flowers." Louisa Quill will portray the role of the little girl, Clara, and will be featured in a solo performance.

Twenty girls in tangerine robes and carrying yellow scarves, rhythmically skating in "Grecian Nights" will add to the variety of presentation. Lyn McDougall and John Franks in a solo duet, and Harvey Hewitt in a comedy number add to the success of this particular skating arrangement.

Mrs. G. C. Allan heads United church women's group

Mrs. G. C. Allen, Bankhead, was returned as circle convenor at the annual meeting of the Edna Corner Circle of the Women's Federation of First United Church held at the home of Mrs. R. H. Blackwood, Richter Street.

Mrs. Allen reported a successful year, with members having held a rummage sale; a home-cooking sale as well as catering for a supper to raise the Circle allocation to provide parcels for Korean relief. They assisted the federation in placing flowers in the church, in hospital visiting; sponsoring a spring tea, and ably supported the bazaar, producing quantities of doll clothes.

A new venture was the production of a cookbook made up of favorite recipes of Circle members. These were ready for pre-Christmas sale, and through their continued sale the Circle will be able to meet their allocation this year. Mrs. Blackwood is in charge of sales.

Following the appointment of president, Mrs. Eric Tasker was chosen as vice-president; Mr. C. F. McClure as treasurer, while Mrs. T. Gregory was installed as secretary. Mrs. T. Naito is friendship convenor for 1954 and Mrs. Blackwood is bazaar convenor. Mrs. R. G. Garry remained as social and program convenor.

Mrs. Allen thanked members of the retiring executive, Mrs. A. Forsyth, treasurer; Mrs. I. Yamamoto, secretary; Mrs. J. E. Greenwood, friendship, and Mrs. Ed Boyd, bazaar convenor, for their support and efforts on behalf of the Circle.

Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Norman Sprout provided tasty refreshments, and it was decided to hold the next meeting at the home of Mrs. A. Forsyth, on February 16.

TRAVELLERS HOME FROM CALIFORNIA Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Parker, Beach Avenue, returned home Monday night from the south where they spent most of the past four weeks motoring along the coast of California.

SON OF KELOWNA OLD-TIMER WED Dr. Alan McKenzie, son of Mrs. G. S. McKenzie, Harvey Avenue, and the late George S. McKenzie, is to be married this Saturday in Montreal to Miss June Perry, of that city. The bride and groom will spend their honeymoon flying to New York, then west and south to Arizona and California, before returning to Vancouver, where Dr. McKenzie is first assistant to the professor of surgery at UBC.

HOLIDAYING IN CALIFORNIA Mrs. Leonia Sargenta, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Josephine Sargenta, left on Tuesday of last week for a month's holiday to be spent in southern California. En route they are combining business with pleasure by visiting various beauty salons and schools in Seattle, Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles.

President of national council of women tells of major role organization has played in the development of Canada

Mrs. Allan Turner Bone, of Montreal, president of the National Council of Women, addressed a large representative group of women assembled in the Community Health Centre on the occasion of the regular meeting of the Kelowna Council of Women last Friday.

The ordinary business of the Council was eliminated as far as possible, but the following announcements were made: The Provincial Council of Women will meet in Victoria February 24-25, when a few of the women will have the opportunity of meeting the cabinet and talking over certain resolutions and problems; the Canadian Association of Consumers urges more members so that there will be greater strength in approaching manufacturers and governments regarding needed changes; a film "America on Wheels" is available from the Orchard City Motors; the new group, "Friends of the Library" will soon be active, judging by the report following the regional meeting of the Library Board.

As the meeting fell within "Health Week" a short review of the work of the South Okanagan Health Unit and the personnel was presented by public health nurse Miss E. Ferrie. Certain resolutions were considered and the local Council endorsed the resolution sent in by Nanaimo that a petition be sent to the board of governors and the senate of UBC to establish a department of Dentistry.

MAJOR FORCE Mrs. Turner Bone, a gracious lady, and one who has proved herself not only in Council but on advisory boards as being well able to fill the position she occupies, spoke first on "Council" on the national level. There are twenty-three national organizations affiliated with N.C.W., while seven provincial Councils and over fifty local Councils across Canada co-operate. Women of National Council, and in fact women on all these three levels are sought to fill positions on certain advisory committees, such as the "Advisory Committee of the National Employment Service," the "National Advisory Board Commission on Manpower" and the "National Advisory Council on Vocational Training."

The National Council is the only women's organization which has been consistently received by the Prime Minister, when that privilege is accorded. The Council is to encourage and make possible that women of all kinds may work together more closely for the common good of humanity. On Saturday a delightful luncheon was given the National President by Mrs. Bruce Deans, Long Street, vice-president of Local Council.

FOUNDER OF COUNCIL In closing Mrs. Turner Bone spoke highly of the founder of Council; Lady Aberdeen, who founded Councils in Nova Scotia and British Columbia sixty years ago. Lady Aberdeen chose as a motto for Council the "golden rule," the object of the work is to encourage and make possible that women of all kinds may work together more closely for the common good of humanity. On Saturday a delightful luncheon was given the National President by Mrs. Bruce Deans, Long Street, vice-president of Local Council.

Problems facing India outlined to W.I. members

India was represented at the recent conference of the World Indian Women's Council, vice-president of the All-India Women's Conference, and by Dr. K. Nimbkar, a member of the government's social welfare planning commission. These women were sent to the world-wide ACWW Conference as observers by the Indian government, and a report of a little of what is needed and what is being done in India has been circulated among members of Women's Institutes, which is affiliated with ACWW.

Mrs. Kupprowsky told of the problems and aspirations of the All-India Women's Conference, whose five-year plan is to raise the standard of living and to attain social security by the establishment of industries. The work of the Women's Conference is primarily to make their country self-sufficient.

HUNGER PROBLEM The great and immediate problem, however, is hunger. India produces only one-third of her requirements and imports from other rice-producing areas has been cut. Illiteracy is very high, and although the All-India Women's Conference already have a large membership, they have barely begun to reach the rural women.

The first step was to enlighten the women to take an interest in public life by working with small groups in cultural and recreational clubs. This was followed by talks to develop in these women the desire to work together for the betterment of their country. The women who have become educated now have employment and there is hope. There is very little employment, none for the women or the young people, and none for the men with families to support. This condition is breeding discontent; therefore the plan to establish industries.

In order to attain their ambition the conference must have the assistance of the Colombo Plan and the Point Four program, though they have no wish to be dependent always on other countries. They seek to improve agriculture and increase production by bringing under cultivation vast areas of waste land. They are just beginning a very big undertaking, and Mrs. Kupprowsky and Dr. Nimbkar attended to ACCW Conference to learn all they could.

NEED SEWING MACHINES Asked in what way the women of Canada could show their interest in the problems of the women of India, Mrs. Kupprowsky replied, "a sewing machine. If your women could send just one sewing machine it would be of so much help." She went on to explain that the women with families try to make a little money sewing by hand, but if a woman had a machine she could make as much as fifty cents a day, and with that fifty cents she could feed her family.

Local group aids arthritic society

The Kelowna Alpha Epsilon Chapter, meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred Weber, Abbott Street, allocated funds for equipment to be used in the Kelowna office of the arthritic society, and instructions were given Miss Dagny Macgregor, physiotherapist, to purchase such equipment. Following the business session Mr. Weber showed films from the National Film Board.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Michael Hall, 2158 Long Street.

Former Kelowna girl exchanges wedding vows at pretty ceremony in Vancouver

Nuptial Mass was celebrated at 11:00 a.m. Saturday, February 6, at the Sacred Heart Church, Vancouver, when Barbara Wilma Ackerman became the bride of James Frank Kirk.

The bride, a former Kelowna girl, where her family lived for 18 years before moving to Vancouver about ten years ago, is the daughter of Mrs. Florentina Ackerman and the late Konrad Ackerman. She was given in marriage by her brother, Art Ackerman, of Kelowna. The groom is the son of Mrs. James Kirk and the late Mr. Kirk.

DOUBLE RING CEREMONY Rev. Father J. Della Torre officiated at the double ring ceremony for which the bride chose a gown fashioned with a lace jacket, complemented with a collar of seed pearls, and full nylon skirt over satin. She wore a bandeau of pleated net trimmed with pearls and carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations.

Mrs. James Lind was matron of honor for her aunt and was gowned in green net topped with broadened satin jacket. Costumed in similar style were the bridesmaids, Mrs. Gwen Dryden and Miss Colleen Curley, the groom's niece. Flowergirl Gloria Favell, another niece of the bride, wore a yellow taffeta frock. All of the attendants carried nosegays of yellow chrysanthemums. James Martin was best man and ushers were George Ackerman and William Atchison.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held at the home of the bride's mother, and in the evening a large reception was held at Hastings Auditorium, when Mr. R. G. Morrison proposed the bridal toast.

HONEYMOON IN PORTLAND For their honeymoon in Portland the bride wore a mauve woollen dress with navy accessories, topped with a fur coat. Mr. and Mrs. Kirk will reside in Vancouver on their return.

Guests from Kelowna included: Mr. and Mrs. James Lind, Mr. and Mrs. George Stromel, Mr. and Mrs. Minard Ackerman, Mrs. A. J. Solben, Mr. and Mrs. Art Ackerman, Tony, Audrey and Danny Ackerman and Mrs. Cecil Favell and Gloria.

British critic advises local Rotarians to "become your own adjudicators"

Adjudicator Graham Suter, urged Rotarians here Tuesday to "become your own adjudicators" in assessing the worth of amateur theater and to "stay away" from productions if their quality does not warrant attendance.

"Give these people the stimulus of your support and stay away if the product does not warrant it for it is your criticism that will raise the level of theatrical standards," he said.

Mr. Suter, who judged the Kelowna Little Theatre entry "Ah Wilderness" in the B.C. regional drama festival Monday night, spoke at the regular weekly meeting of the Rotary Club here.

He told his audience that the last time he had spoken before a Rotary Club was in Guernsey (Channel Islands) 18 months ago, and added that his talk was unprepared because he had discussed with the "Ah Wilderness" cast the performance until 3.00 a.m. Tuesday.

The 34-year-old British actor-producer talked of his first visit to Canada—he's here to adjudicate all entries from the ten provinces and will be in Hamilton (Ont.) for the finals May 10—and what he found on arrival.

Of culture, he said: "It's tiresome." He praised Canadian culture's "absence of stupid, empty snobbery," adding, "people here have priced their own genuine values."

"Don't think that you can get culture just like that... it must grow naturally out of an interest in human nature and life."

Of the oft-spoken necessity of building a theater for amateur plays, he said: "Ought you?" "I don't know if you need a theater yet," he said.

"But, when that day comes, arrange to run one economically so that it will continue to function... it must be an efficient instrument. Don't be too lavish but provide for a good working space."

WHITE ELEPHANT
"Realize that if you give them (amateur groups) a theater, it will have to function as a theater only," adding that it might well prove to be a white elephant if used for all types of entertainment.

"But if in the end you do give them one, give them a good one—and give them a good stage," said the adjudicator.

(Mr. Suter had previously criticized the working space available to the theater group at the Empress during his adjudication Monday night.)

He asked the Rotarians to "take this wonderful opportunity (of developing amateur theater) with both hands, be practical, discriminating and loyal... and you will have something remarkable in a few decades to show for it."

performance, understood his part. Joyce Verry (Mildred)—Good but needs to watch her diction.

Craig Hayman (Tommy)—Rather good. "I usually detest children on the stage, they're rather artificial—children, dogs and theatrical cats."

"SCENE-STEALER"
"Red" Hughes (Sid)—Lovable, a scene-stealer—good entertainment value in the best sense of the word.

Alice Winsby (Lily)—A sweet performance, great sensitivity and control. Too young for the part.

—Economic, clean piece of acting. Faye Weeks (Muriel McComber)—pleasant, but has a breathy voice.

Bob Leckie (Wint Selby)—Light, gay, swift.

Gwyneth Harvey (Belle)—A very good performance, unsparring, proportions good.

Rose Odium (Nora)—Good.

Frank Pitt (bartender)—Quiet, good characterization of the part.

Don Haines (salesman)—Quite a good characterization.

Following his adjudication of the cast, Mr. Suter then went on to add that the performance was "a little inclined toward burlesque, but was well done, full of promise and an achievement."

"I have no quarrel with its reception," he said.

AUDIENCE REACTION
To the audience, he had this to say:

"Some people may forget that the cast is not experienced and their voices are not big, nor able to attract attention if there are disturbances in the audience."

"You have a slight tendency to clap at times when it isn't right for the team (cast). Don't clap when someone says something that is just amusing... clap at the right exits and the great moments," said Mr. Suter.

"Try and develop an appreciation of the more subtle bits of the theater."

And, finally: "Help these people buy the building (Empress Theatre)... and then they can take out all these damned obstacles," said Mr. Suter, pointing backstage with a grin.

Widow of the late Thomas Renwick, who, with his wife and family came to Kelowna in 1904, living on the old Lequime estate at Okanagan Mission, Mrs. Renwick has, with the exception of six years spent in Vancouver, lived in Kelowna since 1906. Born in Guelph, Ontario, she moved to Miami, Manitoba, in 1878, where she was married, and where Mr. Renwick home-stayed, farming there until they came to Kelowna in 1906. The late Mrs. Renwick was predeceased by her husband in 1930.

She is survived by two daughters, both in Kelowna: Mrs. Karl Munro, and Miss Mildred Renwick; one son, Harold, of Vancouver, and a grandson, Jack Munro. Also surviving is one brother, David Lawson, of Miami, Manitoba. During her long residence here Mrs. Renwick's kindly disposition won her a large circle of friends who mourn her passing. Had she lived three more days she would have celebrated her ninety-second birthday.

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Renwick were held Saturday, February 6, from Day's Funeral Parlor, the Rev. R. S. Leitch officiating. Honorary pall-bearers were J. B. Knowles and A. C. Dunnet. Pallbearers were W. H. Cowie, J. W. Cope, H. L. Glenn, A. C. Cross, R. M. Johnston and J. McM. McLennan. Interment in the family plot at Kelowna cemetery.

The mystery known as St. Valentine's Day

There is much doubt if St. Valentine's Day was really ever named after Saint Valentine, ancient Bishop of Rome. In fact no one knows when the festival originated, or even what it commemorates! The ancient Romans celebrated a lovers' day in February, from which the holiday might have been derived. Yet another of the several versions is that this day was developed from the fact that the birds choose their mates about this time. The birds and the bees and the flowers, you know.

THE CHASE
Male birds strut before the female in their courtship—dogs run after rabbits for the meat, the fun or just for the heck of it... boy meets girl, seeks girl... the chase seems to be Nature's way... The Roman Catholic members of the organization will attend their own church at the same hour. "B-P" Sunday is one day which is set aside in memory of the founder of Scouting, Lord Baden Powell of Gilwell. Scoutmasters, Cubmasters and Group Committee chairmen are urged to make note of this and make sure that every member of this group is on parade that day. Transportation could cause some trouble at this time of year, so why not take steps and lay your plans now. Be prepared!

Scout activities are reviewed at Rutland

RUTLAND—The annual meeting of the Rutland Boy Scouts Association was held in the school cafeteria, taking the form of a supper to which Wolf Cubs, Boy Scouts, their parents and all those interested in the movement were invited to attend.

Ladies of the local Women's Auxiliary prepared dinners, and in addition to local people there were several guests from Kelowna, including Dr. H. Henderson, president of the Central Okanagan Boy Scouts Association, and District Scoutmaster Des. Oswell.

Bertram Chichester, chairman of the Rutland group committee presided. Short addresses were given by the guests. Dr. Henderson stressing the need for full co-operation of the parents in supporting the movement and backing up the leaders. District Scoutmaster Oswell told of the many district activities coming up in the near future. Scoutmaster Darze Dendy, in his report, stated that the troop was composed of two patrols, and that before more could be taken on an assistant was urgently needed. Cubmaster Jock Davidson, who has only been in charge of the pack for three weeks, gave a brief report.

He had 26 boys on the roll, with about 18 or so attending regularly. An assistant was also needed for the Wolf Cub pack. The committee secretary-treasurer, Dan Jaud, reported all accounts paid, but only a balance of $4.50 in the treasury. Bert Chichester, in his report of the past year, stressed the excellent camp held last summer at Okanagan Centre, and emphasized the importance of outdoor activities for the Scouts. Election of a new group committee resulted in the appointment of a large number of men, and the choice of a new chairman, secretary and treasurer was left to a meeting of the committee to be held Wednesday, February 10. Tribute was paid to the ladies for the fine supper, to Principal D. H. Campbell for his co-operation in obtaining use of the school, and to a number of supporters who had assisted during the past year with camp and transportation. About 80 persons all were in attendance at the meeting and supper.

New Zealand asks aid of fruit expert

Dr. James Marshall, head of the Dominion Entomological Laboratory at Summerland, is on his way to New Zealand to assist that country's government in the control of fruit pests.

He will explain concentrate spray methods developed at the Summerland laboratory while there.

Dr. Marshall may include Australia and Tasmania in his trip. Although his wide knowledge has been recognized by private industry in the form of many lucrative offers, Dr. Marshall prefers to remain at his present post.

"This trip as a guest of the New Zealand government is not so much an honor for me as it is for our country," is the way he summed it up before leaving.

Spending his youth in Summerland, Dr. Marshall studied at the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph. He served, among other places, in Ontario, Nova Scotia, Wenatchee and Vernon, before returning to Summerland in 1945.

His air journey took him by way of San Francisco and Hawaii to Auckland, New Zealand, and he is

The accident occurred when the Casorso car, proceeding west on Bernard, attempted a left-hand turn onto Ellis. Other car was owned by Rev. R. N. Brown, but was driven by David Bruce, of Kelowna. Bruce is employed at a local service station.

Sears will spend 80% advertising budget in 'papers

Sears, Roebuck & Co. will continue to spend more than 80 per cent of its advertising budget in newspapers, according to a recent statement by C. C. Choyce, national retail advertising manager of the company.

Mr. Choyce said that Sears' total advertising for retail in 1953 was around $44,000,000, with between 35 and 36 million dollars going to newspapers. "We learned a long time ago to put 80 per cent or more of our retail advertising budget in newspapers," he said. "We buy white space in 1,047 newspapers and average over 5,000 ads a week."

very undertaken for Lumbly.

With regard to membership fees, it was found that a change in the bylaws was necessary to reduce the membership to $2.00 as proposed. A notice of motion to this effect will be sent out to the next meeting. The date of the next general meeting was set for Wednesday, March 3, and it will be a supper meeting.

WATER BOARD

H. W. Hobbs read a reply from the Kelowna City Council regarding the proposed district water board and the use of Gopher Flats as a reservoir. In view of the city's rejection of the idea it was felt that there was no purpose in going further with the matter at this time.

Under the heading of traffic there was a good deal of discussion on the need for change in the stop signs at the Rutland post office corner, and a resolution was passed requesting the placing of stop signs at the north and the south, thus making the east-west road a through street. At present the stop signs are where there is clear vision for traffic, while the blind corner has no stop sign. Representatives of the Okanagan Telephone Co., were on hand to discuss the request for change in the addresses in the phone directory from the district to the correct mailing address. This was a BCFGA local motion, endorsed by the Board of Trade, and the Okanagan Telephone representative had just come from a meeting of the directors of the BCFGA local executive where they had also discussed the same matter. They told the meeting that the company was prepared to make the requested change, and would be sending out a questionnaire to all subscribers to get their proper mailing address. The co-operation of the board was sought in getting the subscribers to complete and return the questionnaire. The executive meeting thanked the company representatives for their attendance at the meeting, and acceptance of the proposed changes. Officials attending were Martin Conroy and A. Michelson.

W. E. Hall was called away to the coast recently by news of the serious illness of his father.

EXPERIENCED GUIDER

Mrs. T. G. Marsh appointed district commissioner for Kelowna district of Girl Guide Association

Mrs. T. G. Marsh has been appointed District Commissioner for the Kelowna district of the Girl Guide Association.

Appointment was made by Mrs. John Quinell, of Vancouver, Provincial Commissioner of Girl Guides for B.C. Mrs. Marsh succeeds Mrs. G. R. Rannard who has retired from the Guide movement for the time being, due to ill health.

Adopted by W.I.

Heart-warming letters received from little girl

Letters written by Katharina Acham, of Edelschott, Austria, and mailed to her sponsors, Kelowna Women's Institute, reveal the gratitude for what members have done for her since her "adoption," and tell also of conditions under which she and her brothers and sisters live in their lonely mountain village in Austria.

In the first, written last fall, she thanked members for money sent, with which she was able to buy "strong mountain boots and some underclothing." She goes on to say that she and her six brothers and sisters live with their father in a hut on a small plot of land, and that they recently lost their mother, of whom she says: "We miss our dear mother very much indeed, and we can never forget her. We want always to be good and to stay orderly, and to live in the way which our mother taught us. We have only a small kitchen and one room where we are all sleeping. Now we are all in good health at last."

RECEIVED PARCEL

The letter closes by wishing her sponsors "a really lovely, happy Christmas, and hope that they will spend it in excellent health. Our Christmas this year will be very sad, because mother is not with us. We are poor, too, and cannot buy any presents, but we shall try to make a small Christmas tree for the children. I hope the Christ-child will bring a little present also to me. Thanking you for your goodness, and many greetings."

Another letter, written after receiving the parcel sent to her by Institute members reads, in part: "First I send you hearty greetings from your sponsor-child Kathi. I got the parcel with great joy and many thanks. It was a great joy for me because this year it was my latest present for Christmas. We have already a little snow but not enough for skiing. I shall not forget all my life my dear good sponsors."

LINKED PYJAMAS

Again, in a later letter she says: "I was so pleased with my lovely present. I do like my pyjamas very much. No one else in our little mountain village has another pair."

Mrs. Marsh, who resides at 529 Broadway Avenue, has been captain of the 1st Glenmore Company since December 4, 1952, shortly after she arrived in Kelowna to live.

However, she is not a new Guide, nor a new Commissioner. She has a splendid record, having started as a Guide in the 6th Winnipeg Company and having gone up the ladder from patrol leader to 1st class Guide. She attended training classes in Winnipeg and held a warrant for both Lieutenant and Captain. She was appointed District Captain of the Norwood, St. Vital district for four years, a 1st class leader for Greater Winnipeg area for four years and District Commissioner from 1946 to 1951.

Wedding at coast of interest to Kelownians

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the church of St. Frances-in-the-Wood, Caulfield, at 8:00 p.m. on February 2, when Kathleen Eleanor Stewart, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Stewart, Harvey Avenue, became the bride of Ronald Norcliffe Hurley, only son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hurley, of West Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart, and their sons, Bill and Dick, travelled to Vancouver to attend the ceremony, at which Rev. W. Valentine officiated, and which was followed by a reception at the home of the groom's parents.

To prevent slipping on icy streets, attach a two-inch strip of adhesive tape lengthwise to the sole of each shoe.

Thank you very, very much for them. Dear Sponsors, you write that you have a "Dirndlkleid." I should like to have one, too, but I am content with even the smallest thing, because we are so very poor. (Translation of the word "Dirndlkleid" is not given, as is the rest of these letters; but a friend has provided the translation as "a type of dress.")

Such heartwarming greetings are more than reward enough for members of the Kelowna Women's Institute, who will continue to assist their adopted "Katharina."

PLEASED TO INVESTIGATE

Hospital dietician requests patients to pass along complaints over meals

An interesting talk on food and its handling; menus, housekeeping and business was given to members and visitors attending the regular meeting of Welbank Women's Institute last week, by Mrs. R. Dillabaugh, dietician at the Kelowna General Hospital.

One request made by the speaker, not only of the members and visitors present, but of the public generally, that any grievance concerning meals served at the hospital be passed on to her, when she would be only too pleased to look into the matter. Following the talk two films entitled "Behold the Menu" and "Whenever You Eat" were appreciated by those present.

The meeting being held during Health Week. Mrs. W. Charters featured a paper dealing with the nutrients in one quart of milk. Donations passed at this meeting included $5.00 sent to each of the following: the Queen Alexandra Sanatorium, the March of Dimes and the sewing machine fund for women of India. Thank you letter from the Barley for Korea Fund and from Mt. St. Francis Sanatorium at Nelson, for help given. There was also a letter from Mrs. Harrison, of Vancouver, who, during a lifetime of service dating back to the first world war, has knitted 4,904 pieces. With poor eyesight, but advised by her doctor to continue to use them, she now knits for those who, like herself, are crippled with arthritis. Letters from the Institute's adopted child in Austria were also read.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Foot, who left on a business trip to the Coast last week, have arrived home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Foot, who left on a business trip to the Coast last week, have arrived home.

Members were reminded of the apple pie contest being sponsored this Saturday in the Institute Hall by BCTF, and of the March meeting when husbands are to be invited to hear Mr. Weeks on agriculture.

The roll call, "A bright idea for Spring" resulted in some interesting suggestions, one being to send old nylon stockings to the Indian hospital at Sardis, where they are used for stuffing toys, which in turn, are sold to raise a little much-needed cash—the only cash a lot of patients ever see. Another was to use a spring clothespin for holding the spoon in a pot when food requiring frequent stirring is being cooked.

Washing sweaters in an old pillow-case to prevent the garments from losing shape was followed by a bright idea of a "new spring hat." Still another was to hold a tack or small nail with a bobby pin to prevent hitting the wrong nail when hammering it into the wall, or elsewhere.

Sun Life Ups Policyholder Dividends to $24½ Million

Continues to sell more life insurance than any other Canadian company — $576 million new business written in '53

A higher dividend scale which for the fifth consecutive year will again reduce the cost of life insurance for the holders of two million Sun Life of Canada policies, is announced by George W. Bourke, president, in his Annual Review of the Company's business for 1953. Dividends to policyholders during 1954 will amount to $24½ million, 11% more than in 1953 and an increase of more than 50% over the last five years. Most policyholders carrying participating plans with the Company will benefit by this increase, with the largest payments being distributed in respect of policies longest in force. New life insurance issued during the year amounted to $576,000,000, an increase of $31 million over 1953, and the largest amount for the year of any Canadian life company. New Group Insurance included in the above figure amounts to $170 million, an increase of more than $5 million over the previous year. This rising volume of business was spread over worldwide territory in the nearly 30 countries covered by Sun Life service.

In his survey of the figures for the year, Mr. Bourke comments on the manner in which life insurance meets the responsibilities of its purpose. The Sun Life of Canada, he said, has paid $3,729,000,000 in benefits since the first policy was issued in 1871, and during 1953 no less than half a million dollars were paid out by the Company each working day. Total amount paid during the twelve month period was $125,087,000.

GROUP BUSINESS UP 17%
New annuity contracts during the year included individual annuities and group pensions guaranteeing payments of more than $4 million per annum. Total annuity payments to be made by the Company either immediately or in the future, through group pension plans and individual contracts, increased to $128 million per annum. Total Sun Life insurance in force at the end of 1953 amounted to $5,878,000,000. Group insurance included in this figure is $1,751,000,000, an increase of 17%. The growth of Group Insurance and pension plans reflects the business and industrial expansion of recent years during which time the Company, a pioneer in this form of insurance, has retained a leading position, protecting many hundreds of thousands of employees of business and industrial organizations throughout North America.

The total amount of life insurance and annuities in force in the various countries in which the Sun Life operates is now: Canada, $3,334,035,000 or 45% of the total; United States, $2,628,581,000 (36%); Great Britain and other Commonwealth Countries, $1,169,339,000 (16%); elsewhere throughout the world, $215,015,000 (3%).

Total assets of the Company reached $1,829,750,000 at the year end, being an increase of $37 million during the twelve-month period. These assets, carefully invested and well diversified, are made up of: Bonds — Government, Provincial and Municipal, 23.7%; Bonds — Public Utility, Industrial, etc., 41.8%; Preferred and Common Stocks, 6.9%; Mortgages, 14.4%; Cash and Miscellaneous, 9.3%. The interest rate earned on the Company's funds during 1953 was 3.9% as compared with 3.84% in the previous year, an increase for the fifth consecutive year.

LIFE INSURANCE AIDS HOME BUILDING

During 1953, the Sun Life bond investment was increased by more than $2 million, mainly in the industrial and public utility fields. The amount of mortgage loans expanded by almost $30 million making a total mortgage investment of $262,900,000. Of this amount, $170 million is invested in 41,700 home mortgages. During the last eight years, the Sun Life has loaned $335 million on mortgages.

Discussing the function of life insurance as reflected in the continued progress of the Sun Life, Mr. Bourke mentioned that life insurance ownership today is more widespread, and on a larger scale, than ever before. Canadians now own more than $20 billion of life insurance, more than double the amount at the end of World War II. However, the amount per capita is not yet sufficient to give fully adequate and necessary protection and there is a great need for the average family to own a larger amount of life insurance. "Time has proven that it is only through life insurance that the majority of individuals can meet the problems which death and old age create in loss of income," summed up Mr. Bourke. "There is no substitute for life insurance."

A copy of Sun Life's complete 1953 Annual Report to Policyholders, including the President's review of the year, is being sent to each policyholder, or may be obtained from J. J. Capozzi, Unit Supervisor, S. R. Davis or Des. Oswald, Local Representative, Room 103, Radio Building.

FEBRUARY 3, 1954

As the result of receiving a letter from one of my constituents which was forwarded to the postmaster general in which the design and color of the last issue of stamps was criticized, the postmaster general admits that the current issue was justified but that the current issue of small denomination stamps portraying Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II will be replaced with a new series that will display a more satisfactory likeness and more prominent denominations. Elderly people particularly find it difficult to distinguish the difference in stamp values at the present time. The new issue will be on sale in the not-to-distant future.

The Commons by a vote of 155 to 45, approved in principle the bill increasing the indemnities of members of parliament and senators. This bill was sponsored by the Prime Minister and supported solidly by the Liberal and Social Credit members of parliament and by seven CCF members. Fifteen CCF members joined the Conservatives in voting against the bill. The Conservative opposition was mainly on the ground of the method adopted to increase the pay. This was made clear by several of their speakers. Many of the CCF members who opposed the bill, including myself, felt that it was unfair to give such a substantial raise to members and senators while refusing to increase veterans' allowances, old age pensions, etc. Practically all the speakers objected to the inclusion of members of the senate in the bill. It was felt that their duties are very limited while here in Ottawa and do not exist at all when the senate is not in session. They have no responsibility to give their services to any electoral district nor any particular province. Their usefulness, if any, is confined to the few sittings they have here in Ottawa. The prime minister did suggest that the senators themselves may consider reducing the amount of their compensation when the bill is before the House. The pension payable to members of parliament will not be increased as the result of increased pay.

FLIGHT OF ESKIMOS

Mr. H. R. Knight of Saskatoon drew to the attention of the minister of resources and development, Mr. Lesage, the allegations made in a book called "People of the Deer." This book charged the government has shown culpable apathy about the plight of a tribe of Eskimos who had been lured away from their traditional way of life and were finally abandoned to face starvation. Mr. Lesage, the minister denied the allegations but Mr. Knight maintained that they were correct. The minister was willing to have mimeographed a monograph written by Dr. A. E. Forsild who has been employed by the government in the Northwest Territories and who refutes the charges made in this book. On a suggestion by a member, Mr. Lesage agreed to have this letter distributed. Mr. Knight declared that in all fairness the same publicity should be accorded Mr. Mowat, the author of the book concerned. Mr. Lesage promptly adopted the attitude of the controversy should end and announced that nothing would be mimeographed. The charges against the government are quite serious and yet the minister concerned was only agreeable to having the favorable testimony published. More will be heard of this case later.

The action of the United States senate in passing the bill authorizing American co-operation in the construction of the St. Lawrence waterway was hailed with pleasure in Ottawa. It is well to point out that it has yet to receive the approval of the House of Representatives. I understand the opposition in this House has been stronger and more obstinate than in the senate. It has been very difficult to find out whether Canada has been bluffing or not by the constant statements made by the minister of transport that we were prepared to build the seaway alone. Now the minister says that we should give the United States reasonable time to make up its mind about co-operation. The American government has played around with this idea of an international waterway for over 30 years.

In the meantime, labor unions and other interested parties have been writing the members of parliament urging an immediate start on the construction of this seaway as a means of combating the present and alarming unemployment situation, particularly in the industrial towns of Southern Ontario.

FFRA EXTENSION

From time to time, there has been a desire expressed by the agricultural people of British Columbia to have the services of the FFRA extended to operate in this province of ours. Actually, this act has been operative in special cases even in British Columbia. To satisfy myself that a request had been made for the FFRA to operate in British Columbia, I asked a question on the order paper and received the following answer:

"The Prairie Farm Rehabilitation Act was passed in 1953 to provide for the rehabilitation of drought and soil drifting areas in the provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, and Alberta only. It enabled the undertaking, over a five-year period, of methods of farm practice and water development to minimize the very serious problems of drought and soil drifting that existed there at the time, in the area commonly referred to as the Palliser Triangle.

Representations have been made on a number of occasions to have FFRA extended to all prairie provinces as well as to British Columbia. The last request from British Columbia was made by letter on February 2, 1953, by Hon. R. E. Sommers. In a letter dated February 6, 1953, the minister of agriculture stated that the government has had this matter under consideration for some time and that until a decision has been reached, specific problems in that province would be dealt with by special parliamentary appropriations, as in the past.

"In British Columbia, in response to representations over a number of years, a total of $1,038,811 was expended for flood control, $1,574,715 for the development of irrigation projects for the rehabilitation of veterans and 2,797 acres on seven projects have been developed for irrigation, providing locations for 304 veterans of World War II."

ROAD VS. BRIDGE

The Editor, The Kelowna Courier.

Dear Sir:—In reference to Mr. Wesley Seale's reply to my previous letter, concerning the proposed bridge across the lake, in his remarks he certainly misunderstood or wilfully misrepresented my letter as regards a one way road.

Anyone with any common sense would not suggest a single lane over the bridge. At the present time we have only a one way road through the Okanagan, which is insufficient for the traffic that is and will be to come.

It is noticeable that the various boards of trade in Kelowna, Westbank, Peachland and Summerland, also the tourist resorts, are in favor of a bridge. It is what they stand to gain or lose. For myself, I don't care if they put a bridge or a tunnel across the lake. I was looking at it from an Okanagan Valley point of view. You have to play the game with everyone concerned.

MUSIC FESTIVAL

The Editor, The Kelowna Courier.

Dear Sir:—May I say thank you for your editorial on the "Blessings of Forgetfulness." It is a fine piece of writing.

In view of the fact that Kamloops and the Kootenay Music Festival committees have just advertised their syllabus as being in the hands of the music teachers as of last week, we would draw to your attention that the Kelowna Music Festival committee had our syllabus off the press last October.

The music teachers must have six months to prepare students for the various classes, and in assuring a large entry. Only by a large entry can any committee have the success to which their efforts are entitled.

The Okanagan Musical Festival, because of its scope and its encouragement in the arts, can be responsible for keeping alive the things of the mind and the spirit, which alone of any civilization survive.

Sincerely,

MUSIC LOVER.

APPRECIATES ASSISTANCE

The Editor, The Kelowna Courier.

Dear Sir:—This letter is not written on behalf of the Kelowna and District Credit Union.

Personally, I want to thank you for the excellent coverage you gave the Joan McIntosh Benefit Concert in your issue of Thursday, January 28, and especially your issue of Monday, February 1, 1954.

I think I am safe in saying the concert was a huge success. This was made possible by the hearty co-operation of all our credit union executive members numbering some 15 in all, together with the excellent assistance rendered by you.

During my 23 years stays in Kelowna I never felt as happy in my life as I did the night of the concert. The hall was full to capacity, the concert was an excellent one, and we have done the McIntosh family an excellent favor.

Very sincerely yours,

GORDON D. HERBERT.

MINOR HOCKEY JAMBOREE

The Editor, The Kelowna Courier.

Sir:—Those who attended the Minor Hockey Jamboree at the arena last Saturday must agree that the kids put on a very good show.

My personal enjoyment of the proceedings was tempered when I learned that the Minor Hockey Association was attempting to make the participants in the hockey games pay an admission price.

I consider this to be a "skinflint" attitude and I feel that the general public, who support the jamboree and minor hockey as a whole, is entitled to know that this situation exists and has existed for the past five years.

This year the attempt was foiled by convincing the boys that they should not pay anything, not even the ten cents asked for when it was found that there was opposition to the payment of the original admission price—twenty-five cents. The boys stuck together and, ten minutes before starting time, the doors were opened to them.

Maybe I'm wrong—I could be—but I believe the principle of making the entertainers buy an admission ticket is all wrong. Certainly the extra revenue received in this manner cannot offset the harm that could be caused through the barring of only one boy because he did not have the price of admission. Too, to revive the original purpose of the arena, why was it built if not to provide a place for FREE wholesome recreation for the children of the community.

I am told that only at the jamboree are the boys charged an admission. That may be so but it still does not excuse the attempt to obtain the last "drop of blood." If the association needs more money to operate efficiently, the membership fee could be raised. This might eliminate some children from participating in minor hockey but it certainly would not have the bad effect that would be created by barring a child from the one attraction that is the culmination of the entire year's participation.

It is hoped that in the spring Bob Springer will act as Scout assistant. Tribute was also paid to the Catholic and United Churches who donate halls, rent free, to the Scouts and to the Community Hall directors for the low rates made available to the Scouts. Mrs. V. Cameron, Brown Owl of the 1st Westbank Brownies, thanked the Scouts for the invitation to the Brownies to attend the evening's entertainment and wished the group

Benvoulin crash victim still in hospital; recovering from double fracture of skull

BENVOLIN — Sharron Reid, who was hurt in a car and bike collision on Jan. 8, is still in the hospital, but is improving steadily. Further X-rays show that there is a four inch fracture on each side of the base of the skull. Her left arm is strengthening and she is able to use it more each day.

The Mission Creek P-TA entertained the Benvoulin P-TA at a card party on Friday, February 5, when 24 attended and 6 tables were set up. Everyone had an enjoyable time, and delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Claude Miller with daughters, Jo-Anne and Karen, from Ontario, are visiting Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Anderson, and are also here to attend the Carlson-Anderson wedding.

Grace was said by George Pointer. After supper, R. A. Widmeyer spoke briefly on the Institute work and the apple contest, which the Institute will sponsor February 19, in the Community Hall. Prizes will be donated by B.C. Tree Fruits Ltd.

Some interesting films were shown by G. Porter including some of the local gardens; the planting of the spruce tree in the school grounds; the visit of the Governor.

General to East Kelowna, and the surrounding scenery. After the films there was a game of cards, followed by a sing-song with Mrs. P. Winter at the piano. Later refreshments were served.

The supper was convened by Mrs. J. Evans to whom credit is due, and to her helpers.

You can't go ALL-OUT If you feel ALL-IN

These days most people work under pressure, worry more, sleep less. This strain on body and brain makes physical fitness easier to lose—harder to regain. Today's tense living, lowered resistance, overwork, worry—any of these may affect normal kidney action. When kidneys get out of order, excess acids and wastes remain in the system. Then backache, disturbed rest, that "fired-out" heavy-headed feeling often follow. That's the time to take Dodd's Kidney Pills. Dodd's stimulates the kidneys to normal action. Then you feel better—sleep better—work better. Ask for Dodd's Kidney Pills at any drug counter.

The Victoria merry-go-round

By JAMES K. NESBITT

VICTORIA—Next Tuesday the guns will roar and Lieutenant Governor Clarence Wallace will arrive at the Legislative Buildings to open another session of the Legislature.

There'll be the usual fuss and feathers, all the pomp and circumstance—the big show that this capital loves so dearly.

That night, at Government House, the lights will gleam, and B.C.'s top officialdom will sit down to dine in the state dining room with the Lieutenant-Governor. The state ball will follow.

The annual state ball causes many an ache in the breasts of socially ambitious people. Just about everybody wants to go to the state ball, Victoria's most glittering social function. But there's only room for 500 to dance comfortably in the ballroom, and so many people are disappointed.

At this period of year some people absent themselves from the capital. They go to California, so that if someone should ask them: "Were you at the state ball?" they may reply, "Oh, no, my dear—we couldn't go—our annual vacation in the south, you know." When all along they weren't invited.

In time honored fashion the session will drag along for almost a month, as member after member rises to take part in the Throne Speech debate. Everybody will say that, isn't all the talking awful and that it should be stopped, but, of course, everybody will keep right on talking, hoping in this way to make an impression on the folks back home. Then will come the budget, and then the specifying will start all over again in the budget debate, in which the budget will hardly be mentioned at all. This is just an excuse to make speeches. And it won't be a debate. There'll be few interruptions to members' set speeches.

"PGE SESSION"
The government's legislative program is a bit hazy yet. Premier Bennett seems determined to make this what he calls "a PGE session." He's set on starting the Squamish-North Vancouver extension; it'll get underway by June and take 18 months.

There shouldn't be too much in the way of politics discussed at the session. A general election's a long way off. The Liberals, naturally enough, will crow about their victory over Finance Minister Gundersen in the Victoria by-election last November. They'll rub it in, and Social Crediters will have to sit there and take it. They'll reply that Liberals are CCFers ganged up to beat Mr. Gundersen. A new kind of coalition, will say the Premier—a coalition between Liberals and the CCF. Mr. Bennett always says that when he sees Liberals and CCFers joining against Social Credit.

And there'll be the usual questions from the opposition—about what on earth is Social Credit, anyway. Health and Welfare Minister Martin will attempt to explain, but Mr. Bennett and his attorney-general, young Mr. Bonner, who don't know what Social Credit is, and don't care either, will shut Mr. Martin. They don't want Mr. Martin making any theoretical speeches about Social Credit. Mr. Martin has a way of getting the government into hot water when he makes a pop-off speech.

LIQUOR TAX
Some back-bench Social Crediters are said to be somewhat annoyed with the government. They think the government does too much without consulting the back-benchers.

Here's a case: some S.C. back-benchers think they should have been consulted before the Premier announced that the 10 per cent tax on drinks by the glass would be thrown out. It's known that Mr. Chant, a former Alberta cabinet minister, who thinks he should now be in the B.C. cabinet, is particularly annoyed, and may attempt to lead a bit of a revolt against the Premier.

However, back-benchers always feel that way about the government they support. They feel they should be consulted on every government move. This, however, is nonsense; how can it be done?

If that were done the M.L.A.'s would have to be in session day in and day out. A government is elected to make decisions, and recommendations to the Legislature. It shouldn't have to get in touch with every M.L.A. before it can move.

But in caucus, there are always back-benchers who like to get up and howl about dictatorship in the government they support. These howls leak out, and so get around the buzzes that there's revolt in government ranks. However, it's never anything to worry about.

r.p.m.'s column

On toll bridges

Recently O. L. Jones, M.P. for Okanagan-Boundary, devoted his column, "Under the Tower at Ottawa," in this newspaper, to reproducing Mr. Solons Low's remarks on toll bridges. Almost a full column of space was used. The incident is disturbing from two angles: (1) I feel Mr. Jones departed from our understanding, and (2) that he brought politics to a question which should not be political.

When Mr. Jones was elected this newspaper offered him free space to report his impressions of what went on in Ottawa, with the single restriction that the space was not to be used as a propaganda spot for either himself or his party. While he has slipped once or twice, he has done reasonably well as a general rule. On one or two occasions we have blue pencilled a paragraph or two and one or two occasions remarks that should have been blue pencilled have slipped by. But, by and large, propaganda and playing politics have been absent from Mr. Jones' comments as far as this newspaper is concerned.

In the recent instance Mr. Jones used a column of space to present in detail the views of the federal Social Credit leader. This in itself is unusual and there is only one logical explanation, of course. Mr. Low's position is directly opposite to that of the B.C. provincial government which is a Social Credit government.

Had the B.C. government been a CCF government and had it instituted a toll bridge authority, I do not imagine for one moment that Mr. Jones would have used Mr. Low's comments as the subject of his 24 inches of type.

Nor, if Mr. Low's position had been in accord with Mr. Bennett's would Mr. Jones have paid such adoring attention to his remarks.

No, in this instance, Mr. Jones let his political keenness force him to forget the general understanding he has with this newspaper.

r.p.m.
The fact that the matter discussed was toll bridges and toll roads is purely incidental. Had a similar set of circumstances arisen on any other subject the above comments would still stand.

However, I must confess that I find no fault with Mr. Low's and Mr. Jones' viewpoint on toll bridges. The only criticism I would make, however, is that the remarks should have ended with "but . . ." because they do not go far enough.

The Courier during the past 15 years has many times argued that the ferries should be free ferries as they are part of the highway system. This newspaper still believes that.

But, being realistic, we see no chance whatsoever of the ferries being free when they are losing $200,000 a year (Premier Bennett's figure). And, being realistic, we know that a bridge cannot be built unless it is a toll bridge and that it will be many, many years before the Naramata Road can be built out of public works revenue.

In principle, like Mr. Low and Mr. Jones, we are against toll bridges and toll roads. Nevertheless, in practice, we are forced to accept them as an unwelcome expedient. After all, we now pay ferry tolls and will continue to do so as long as the ferries operate.

Why, then, should we gag at paying the same tolls on a bridge rather than the ferries? It surely would be changing a bad deal for a much better one, that's all.

While I can go along with most of Mr. Low's remarks, as quoted by Mr. Jones, I feel they do not go far enough. After all the world is changing. And quickly. And changing in a manner which brings old things back. (Listen to the radio any night and count the number of old songs you hear! Why I even heard "Milk and Honey" the other night.)

A decade ago we would have laughed had anyone said that toll roads would be increasingly popular today. Yet they are just that. The Pennsylvania Turnpike has been in operation three or four years. There are half a dozen similar toll roads making a connection from Portland, Maine, to below Baltimore as further. New York State is building a toll-free turnpike from New York City to Albany and west to Buffalo and the Pennsylvania

Council approves extra financing

PENTICTON—Penticton Creek may cost another $40,000 this year. Board of works recommended to city council provision for another $24,000—in addition to $14,000 already authorized for creek work for this year.

Council gave tentative approval to the recommendation and the city engineer was instructed to bring in a report detailing how it is proposed to use the money.

Of the $14,000 approved in the interim budget, $10,000 was for capital work in conjunction with the government financed lining of the creek channel at the lower end, and $4,000 was for maintenance.

Mayor suggests maple flooring

PENTICTON—Mayor Oscar Matson has advocated the use of maple instead of fir for flooring to replace worn decking in the Memorial Arena.

Building inspector S. H. Cornock based his estimates on using fir, $3,500 but maple would add another $900 to the bill, he said.

The flooring in the arena has been worn nearly through in the three years since it was built.

Anglican church at Rutland names officers

RUTLAND—The annual vestry meeting of St. Aidan's Anglican church was held last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norton Would. Rev. J. E. Snowden occupied the chair, and the following officers were elected for the year:

Vicar's warden, T. Daniels; people's warden, Norton Would; committee, R. G. Bury, Charles Dudgeon, S. Daniels, J. A. Garner, and J. Holford.

J. A. Garner was chosen lay delegate to synod, with T. Daniels as alternate. Following the report of the people's warden on the past year, the vicar expressed thanks to all who had helped with the church activities. He stated that St. Aidan's had done well, in spite of the fact that there were only 17 Anglican families in this part of the parish. Mrs. J. Garner, president of the ladies' guild, in her report, said that the past year had been a successful one, though revenue from the flower show had been less than usual. Mrs. Would, superintendent, reported that there were 21 children enrolled in the Sunday school. Mrs. S. Daniels was given a vote of thanks for her work as organist. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the Guild.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Bach, of Armstrong, were week-end visitors to the district, visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Bonogorsky, of Preble, Saskatchewan, have been visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hagel.

Joe Graf left recently for Vancouver, after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Graf.

Mrs. A. W. Gray left last week for Saturna Island to visit her father, Mr. E. T. Money, who has been seriously ill.

Rutland AOTS plans variety concert shortly

RUTLAND—The AOTS Club held their monthly support meeting in the United Church basement on Monday evening. Following an excellent supper served by the ladies of the Northern Circle of the Women's Federation, a short business session was held. E. G. Cross being in the chair. Plans for fund-raising activities were discussed, and a variety concert and an amateur night are both in prospect for the near future. Speaker for the evening was Rev. A. W. N. Drutt, who gave a very interesting talk on his experiences as a medical missionary in Jamaica. The talk was illustrated by a number of very beautiful colored slides.

KITCHENER, Ont.—Biologists have never found a male among one species of tiny snails; the self-sufficient females bear young ones without fertilization, said Dr. J. G. Oughton of the Ontario Agricultural College, in an address here. Snails are also right or left-handed, he said, the whorl on the outside of the snail being the indicator. A pasture covering 300 acres without trees in Huntingdon, England, is believed Europe's largest meadow.

JOHN
Talks about:

LOWER RATES ON Niagara Loans

You might think that rates on loans are exactly the same from company to company. This is an idea that could cost you money, for Niagara Finance has a rate structure that is lower in many cases, and here's the reason why. It's a matter of policy with Niagara to believe that it is no more trouble to make a loan of say, $750 than it is $100,000 . . . and, if the rate of charge was exactly the same on both loans we'd obviously make more money on a $750.00 loan. So we work on the idea that on loans for larger amounts the rate should run "downhill," while at the same time rates on smaller amounts are standardized. Besides that, we think you'll find our idea of having loans to $1500 life-insured at no extra cost to you. That's the sort of protection that a family man can appreciate. Come in and see us if you need money—we'll like to meet you.

Midgets beat Vernon 4-3; win playoffs, Yochim Cup

A 4-3 win over Vernon Monday night gave Kelowna midgets the George Yochim trophy when they beat Vernon midgets in a best-of-three series in the South Okanagan playoff series.

Kelowna will play Kamloops in the third round of the playoffs at 18:30 p.m. Kelowna midgets won the Vernon Kinsmen Club trophy in the near future.

Centreman Denis Casey gave the Kelowna club its win when he pounded in three goals for a historic one in the opener on an assist from Glenn Delcourt at 11:30, the second and third within 70 seconds of each other midway in the second period. Peter Luknowsky was credited with assists on both the second-period goals.

Vernon's Basil Mykytiuk evened the score at 9:46 in the middle stanza, but Casey's two markers, and a

Short-handed V's wallop Trail 6-3 to settle score

(Special to The Courier)

PENTICTON—Eleven rampaging Pentiction V's—all the player power they could ice here Monday night—proved to be more than enough hockey team for the touring Trail Smokeeaters as the Pentiction crew settled an old 5-5 score dating back to November by hammering the Smokees around the home town pond for a 6-3 victory.

Playing without the Warwicks and Kay Conway, V's had little trouble rolling up a 4-1 lead in the first period and salted the game away in the second as each club scored twice, the third frame going blank.

Conway was sidelined with the last of a three game suspension that has hung over since the V's last WIL tour. Bernie Bathgate should have been on the bench but he toughed it out against an injured leg received last Friday.

MCINTYRE ACTIVE

Jack McIntyre has lost none of his zest for scoring even though he is doing rear-guard duty as he collected top points with two goals and three assists. Jim Fairburn, back in action only because V's are short handed, scored twice and added a helper. Defenceman George McAvooy potted a singleton and picked up two assists. A singleton went to Jack McDonald, three assists to Bernie Bathgate and single helpers to Ernie Rucks, Doug Kilburn and Don Berry.

SUMMARY

First period—Pentiction, McIntyre (Kilburn, Berry) 4:51; Pentiction, Fairburn (Bathgate, McIntyre) 10:59; Pentiction, McAvooy (McIntyre, Bathgate) 11:32; Trail, Rypien (unassisted) 12:45; Pentiction, Fairburn (Rucks, McAvooy) 13:49. Penalties—Berry, Rypien, Hamilton, McIntyre.

Second period—Trail, Kuzma (Young, Shabaga) 2:25; Trail, Rypien (Bursaw) 3:31; Pentiction, McDonald (Fairburn, McIntyre) 11:58; Pentiction, McIntyre (Bathgate, McAvooy) 19:13. Penalties—McIntyre, Kilburn (minor, major), Maniag (minor, major).

Third period—No goals. Penalties—Mascotte, Cook.

WINNING RINK

VICTORIA—The Art Gooder rink of Vancouver won the second annual Victoria Bonspiel, which wound up here Saturday night.

Great season for NHL vets

Two veteran NHL forwards enjoying their greatest season are Kenney Modell of Montreal Canadiens and Joe Klukay of Boston Bruins.

The current season still has close to two months left but both Modell and Klukay have already scored more goals than they have in any previous single National Hockey League season.

Modell had 19 goals on the morning of January 30. His previous high for a season was 17, when he notched that many for Canadiens during the 1948-49 campaign.

Klukay's previous high had been

The Olympic Games are dedicated to the lofty ideal of fostering international goodwill. But all was not peaceful during the 1952 events at Helsinki, Finland, and rumblings are going on right now over the contests scheduled for Melbourne, Australia, two years hence.

The biggest argument during the '52 Games was over the total point standings for the various countries, a rank violation of Olympic tradition.

The Games are not held to determine whether one country produces better athletes than another; they are designed to demonstrate that true sportsmanship prevails among nations.

With that in view, Olympic officials have issued no point standings to show that this or that country "won" the Games. In fact, the International Olympic committee frowns on such unofficial tabulations.

But still the unofficial standings were made up and the United States estimated it had garnered more points than any other country. Russia, on the other hand, figured its victories in placing in various events counted more than the U.S. version. It, too, claimed to have "won" the Games.

NEW CONTROVERSY

International goodwill, at least between those countries, was not furthered. Politics crept in to displace sportsmanship.

The new controversy springs from Australia's strict quarantine laws, which threaten to disrupt the equestrian events. The law requires that all horses—except those from the British Isles and New Zealand—undergo a six-month quarantine before entering the country.

Some countries felt that would bar equestrian events because of the cost of maintaining the horses for half a year in Australia before the Games and separating the animals from their trainers and riders.

And it's a sort of unwritten law that all the Olympic events be held at the same site. So there has been some agitation for the Games to be shifted from Australia to another country.

E. J. (Billy) Holt, 70-year-old sportsman who was chief organizer of the 1948 Games in London and has been "borrowed" by Melbourne to serve as technical director for the '56 contests, smells a rat.

"This is simply a red herring thrown across the path to conceal the real motives of a small group of men in the (Olympic) organization," he said. "There are some who

Rod, gun club annual meeting at Orange Hall

Kelowna Rod and Gun Club will hold its annual meeting and election of officers February 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the Orange Hall.

Committee reports, recommendations for the 1954 fish and game regulations, resolutions, and open discussion is planned for the agenda.

The report on business affairs and activities of the club in 1953 will include:

Completion of the cement flume project at Relawig Lake at a cost of $225. Increased nesting of migratory birds has resulted from the raising of the lake.

GREY TROUT

The club executive has continued to oppose the introduction of grey trout into Okanagan Lake until such time that scientific investigation proves the introduction of these fish will benefit fishing.

Five thousand fish were liberated in Kaperon Lake by the president and secretary.

Signs reading "No Shooting Without Permission" and "Cattle at Large," were posted at many places by game warden Don Kill and the program has resulted in better farmer-sportsman relations.
